Workhorse Shareholders: Vote Today FOR Compelling Combination with Motiv

Workhorse Provides Shareholders Information on Why They Should Vote FOR ALL of the Proposals in Connection with the Upcoming Annual Meeting

Visit votewkhs.com for Information on How to Vote

CINCINNATI, October 16, 2025 – Workhorse Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: WKHS) (“Workhorse” or “the Company”), an American technology company focused on pioneering the transition to zero-emission commercial vehicles, today reminded Workhorse shareholders to vote FOR the previously announced transaction with Motiv Electric Trucks (“Motiv”) and FOR all other proposals in connection with Workhorse’s upcoming 2025 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”) on November 12, 2025. Shareholders of record as of the close of business on September 18, 2025, will be entitled to vote at the meeting.

Shareholders are encouraged to visit votewkhs.com for more information on how to vote.

Workhorse mailed the following letter to shareholders:

Dear Workhorse Shareholders,

We are reaching out to remind you to VOTE TODAY FOR ALL PROPOSALS in connection with Workhorse’s upcoming Annual Meeting on November 12, 2025.

Workhorse and Motiv are combining in an all-stock transaction that will create a leading North American medium-duty electric truck OEM. To ensure that shareholders are appropriately informed about the various proposals to be voted on at the Annual Meeting, the voting process itself, and the benefits of voting for all of the proposals, we have answered your most frequently asked questions:

1. Why should I vote for the Workhorse – Motiv merger?

- Our combination with Motiv will provide Workhorse shareholders the opportunity to participate in the potential upside of a leader in the medium-duty EV commercial vehicle market, with a significant ownership stake in the combined company.
- The only way for our shareholders to participate in this potential upside and benefit from long-term growth and value creation is by getting out today and voting FOR the Workhorse-Motiv transaction, as well as the other proposals up for a vote at the Annual Meeting.

2. What proposals do I need to vote on at the Workhorse Annual Meeting? Do I need to vote on all of them?

- There are nine proposals up for a vote at the Workhorse Annual Meeting.
- In order for us to complete the transaction with Motiv, and for our shareholders to participate in the potential upside of the combined company, we need Workhorse shareholders to approve all nine of the proposals in connection with the Meeting.
- We therefore encourage you to vote FOR all of the proposals in connection with the meeting as soon as possible.

3. What if the Workhorse merger doesn't go through?

- If Workhorse shareholders do not vote for the merger proposals, the transaction will not close, and Workhorse will have to continue as an independent company.
- We will not get access to the financial resources the transaction would provide, and Workhorse shareholders would not have the opportunity to participate in the potential upside of the combined company.
- If Workhorse continues as an independent company, we will likely continue to face liquidity issues and may need to pursue a restructuring, in which shareholders' equity would likely recover very little or no value.
- The Workhorse Board of Directors looked at all other viable paths forward and thoroughly explored several alternatives for Workhorse and our shareholders.
- We believe our future with Motiv is the best option for our Company and your investment.

4. Why is Workhorse doing a reverse stock split? Can I vote for the transaction and not the reverse stock split?

- Because the merger involves a change of control of Workhorse, Workhorse will be treated as a new applicant for Nasdaq listing and must meet Nasdaq's initial listing standards. Those standards include a minimum price threshold. As a result, a reverse stock split will likely be necessary to enable Workhorse to complete its transaction with Motiv.
- We encourage shareholders to get their votes in FOR the reverse stock split and all of the other proposals in connection with the meeting.

5. How do I vote for the Workhorse-Motiv transaction?

- You can vote for all nine proposals by:
 - Attending the Workhorse Annual Meeting virtually on November 12, 2025.
 - Voting online before the meeting at www.proxyvote.com.
 - Voting online during the meeting at www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/WKHS2025.
 - Completing, signing, dating, and returning a proxy card to the mailing address provided.
- If you are a beneficial owner of shares of Workhorse Common Stock, please refer to the vote instruction form provided by your broker, bank, or nominee.

6. I recently sold my shares but received a proxy card. Can I still vote at the Annual Meeting?

- If you held shares as of the record date of September 18, 2025 but have sold your shares following that date, you are still eligible to vote at the 2025 Annual Meeting.
- We encourage all eligible voters to vote FOR all proposals.

7. What is the deadline for getting my vote in for the Workhorse Annual Meeting?

- Votes must be received at the Workhorse Annual Meeting or in advance of the Meeting, which is scheduled for November 12, 2025.
- It is imperative that Workhorse shareholders approve all nine proposals to ensure that Workhorse can complete the transaction with Motiv.

VOTE TODAY!

To capture our long-term growth opportunities, we need your VOTE FOR ALL PROPOSALS at the Annual Meeting. Every vote counts!

Thank you for your continued support of Workhorse.

VOTE TODAY

Your vote is very important. It does not matter how many shares you own. Our Annual Meeting is scheduled for November 12, 2025.

Vote today by proxy card, online or by phone. For more information and additional materials visit www.votewkhs.com.

Some of these statements may be identified by the use of the words “plans”, “expects” or “does not expect”, “estimated”, “is expected”, “budget”, “scheduled”, “estimates”, “forecasts”, “intends”, “anticipates” or “does not anticipate”, “targets”, “projects”, “contemplates”, “predicts”, “potential”, “continue”, or “believes”, or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “would”, “should”, “might”, “will” or “will be taken”, “occur” or “be achieved”.

Forward-looking statements are based on the opinions and estimates of management of Workhorse as of the date such statements are made, and they are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors that may cause the actual results, level of activity, performance or achievements to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties could give rise to a delay in or the failure to consummate the Merger or the other transactions described herein (collectively, the “Transactions”). Some factors that could cause actual results to differ include the outcome of continuing discussions between the Workhorse and Motiv with respect to the Transactions, including the possibility that the parties may terminate certain of the Transactions or that the terms of certain of the Transactions may change; our ability to consummate the Transactions or achieve the expected synergies and/or efficiencies; potential regulatory delays; the industry and market reaction to this announcement; the effect of the announcement of the Transactions on the ability of the parties to operate their businesses and retain and hire key personnel and to maintain favorable business relationships; the possibility that the integration of the parties may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected or that operating costs and business disruptions may be greater than expected; the ability to obtain regulatory and other approvals required to consummate the Transactions, including from Nasdaq; the risk that the price of our securities may be volatile due to a variety of factors; changes in laws, regulations, technologies, the global supply chain, and macro-economic and social environments affecting our business; and our ability to maintain compliance with Nasdaq rules and otherwise maintain our listing of securities on Nasdaq.

Additional information on these and other factors that may cause actual results and Workhorse’s performance to differ materially is included in Workhorse’s periodic reports filed with the SEC, including, but not limited to, Workhorse’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024, including those factors described under the heading “Risk Factors” therein, and Workhorse’s subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date hereof, and Workhorse undertakes no obligations to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.

This communication contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 21E of the Exchange Act, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. All statements other than statements of historical fact included or incorporated by reference in this communication, including, among other things, statements regarding the proposed merger transaction between Workhorse and Motiv, future events, plans and anticipated results of operations, business strategies, the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction, the anticipated impact of the proposed transaction on the combined company’s business and future financial and operating results, the expected amount and timing of synergies from the proposed transaction, the anticipated closing date for the proposed transaction and other aspects of the combined company’s operations or operating results are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of the words “believe”, “plan”, “expect”, “estimate”, “budget”, “schedule”, “forecast”, “intend”, “anticipate”, “target”, “project”, “contemplate”, “predict”, “potential”, or “continue”, and similar words or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “would”, “should”, “might”, “will” or “will be taken”, “occur” or “be achieved”. However, the absence of these words does not mean that the statements are not forward-looking. Where, in any forward-looking statement, Workhorse expresses an expectation or belief as to future results, such expectation or belief is expressed in good faith and believed to be reasonable at the time such forward-looking statement is made. However, these statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and other factors beyond the parties’ control. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecast in the forward-looking statements.

The following risks and uncertainties, among others, could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those described in forward-looking statements: the parties' ability to successfully integrate their businesses and technologies, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; the risk that the expected benefits and synergies of the proposed transaction may not be fully achieved in a timely manner, or at all; the risk associated with Workhorse's ability to obtain the approval of its shareholders required to consummate the proposed transaction and the timing of the closing of the proposed transaction, including the risk that the conditions to the transaction are not satisfied on a timely basis or at all or the failure of the transaction to close for any other reason or to close on the anticipated terms; the risk that any regulatory approval, consent or authorization that may be required for the proposed transaction is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated; the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the proposed transaction; unanticipated difficulties, liabilities or expenditures relating to the transaction; the effect of the announcement, pendency or completion of the proposed transaction on the parties' business relationships and business operations generally; the effect of the announcement or pendency of the proposed transaction on Workhorse's common stock prices and uncertainty as to the long-term value of the combined company's common stock; risks that the proposed transaction disrupts current plans and operations of the parties and their respective management teams and potential difficulties in hiring or retaining employees as a result of the proposed transaction; our ability to develop and manufacture our product portfolio, including the W4 CC, W750, and W56 and other programs; our ability to attract and retain customers for our existing and new products; ongoing and anticipated changes in the U.S. political environment, including those resulting from the new Presidential Administration, control of Congress, and changes to regulatory agencies; the implementation of changes to the existing tariff regime by the new Presidential Administration and measures taken in response to such tariffs by foreign governments; risks associated with obtaining orders and executing upon such orders; the unavailability, reduction, elimination or adverse application of government subsidies and incentives or any challenge to or failure by the federal government, states or other governmental entities to adopt or enforce regulations such as the California Air Resource Board's Advanced Clean Fleet regulation; changes in attitude toward environmental, social, and governance matters among regulators, investors, and parties with which we do business; supply chain disruptions, including constraints on steel, semiconductors and other material inputs and resulting cost increases impacting us, our customers, our suppliers or the industry; our ability to capitalize on opportunities to deliver products to meet customer requirements; our limited operations and need to expand and enhance elements of our production process to fulfill product orders; our general inability to raise additional capital to fund our operations and business plan; our ability to receive sufficient proceeds from our current and any future financing arrangements to meet our immediate liquidity needs and the potential costs, dilution and restrictions resulting from any such financing; our ability to maintain compliance with the listing requirements of the Nasdaq and the impact of any steps we have taken, including reverse splits of our common stock, on our operations, stock price and future access to funds; our ability to protect our intellectual property; market acceptance of our products; our ability to obtain sufficient liquidity from operations and financing activities to continue as a going concern and, our ability to control our expenses; volatility in and deterioration of national and international capital markets and economic conditions; global and local business conditions; acts of war (including without limitation the conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East) and/or terrorism; the prices being charged by our competitors; our inability to retain key members of our management team; our inability to satisfy our customer warranty claims; the outcome of any regulatory or legal proceedings, including with Coulomb Solutions Inc.; our ability to realize the benefits of the sale and leaseback transaction of our Union City Facility; and other risks and uncertainties and other factors discussed from time to time in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

Additional information on these and other factors that may cause actual results and Workhorse's performance to differ materially is included in Workhorse's periodic reports filed with the SEC, including, but not limited to, Workhorse's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024, including those factors described under the heading "Risk Factors" therein, and Workhorse's subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q.
